Leadership Roundtable Series

As you may be aware Leadership Plus is a community organisation that promotes people with disabilities as leaders. We undertake a range of initiatives including:

- Leadership Internships
- Leadership Mentoring Programs
- A Leadership Program
- Our Photographic Exhibition “Victorian Icons, People and Places”

In addition to these initiatives we are running a Disability Leadership Roundtable Series over the coming twelve months. The series is designed to stimulate discussion on selected controversial themes. The theme for the first roundtable is:

WHERE DO WE FIT AS LEADERS?
SOME LESSONS FROM THE INDIGENOUS AND WOMEN’S SECTORS.

SPEAKERS:

Richard Bluck, Chief Executive Officer - Leadership Victoria
Mary Crooks, Chief Executive Officer - Women’s Trust Victoria
Helen Kennedy, Executive Officer - Koori Community Leadership Program.

SPEAKERS NOTES / QUESTIONS TO CONSIDER:

- How do marginalised groups become a part of leadership in our community/society?
- What strategies have you experienced in your/other sectors that have caused diversity in leadership in Victoria? Some examples and perspectives on their effectiveness.
- Is there a place for specialised leadership programs or should we have moved past that, and only be focusing on mainstream leadership programs? What else could be done other than leadership programs?

FORMAT:

10 minutes from each speaker followed by an open forum facilitated by Stephen Gianni, Director of Leadership Plus.
